PASTOR'S TOOLBOX at The Disciple Project

A crew of theologians, specialists in particular fields, and practitioners that will help pastors and professional lay leaders "sharpen the saw" for mission and ministry.

Texas Lutheran University
June 26-30, 2011

Luke/Acts → Ray Pickett

Ray is Professor of New Testament at the Lutheran School of Theology in Chicago. His passion is the Gospel of Luke and is also presently writing the Book of Faith Initiative Study on Acts.

Capital Fundraising → Kathy Hauelsen

Kathy is a Stewardship Key Leader - a ministry of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America that strengthens congregations by helping them raise funds and experience renewal in faith and mission.

Intergenerational Ministry → Peggy Hahn

Peggy serves as Assistant to the Bishop of the TX-LA Gulf Coast Synod. Her leadership areas include Youth & Family, Justice Ministries, and Companion Synods.

Money Matters → Tiffany Darst

Tiffany works with Thrivent. She will share with pastors the many educational and informational programs available to help people with financial management and stewardship.

Office Electronics → Chris Lake

Chris serves as pastor at Tree of Life Lutheran in Conroe, TX. He has a lot of "hands on" knowledge about how electronic technology can help pastors and congregations work "smarter."

Council & Governance → Evan Moilan

Evan served as Executive Director of Lutherhill Ministries and has recently taken the position of Philanthropic Advisor, with Lutheran World Relief/Lutheran Malaria Initiative.

Evangelism → Dale Olson

Dale recently accepted the call as Senior Pastor at Living Word Lutheran in Katy, TX; which worships about 700+ every weekend.

Global Mission → Sunitha Mortha

Sunitha serves as the Director for Mission Formation and Relationships in the churchwide offices of the ELCA. She will also be leading the Bible studies at the Disciple Project.

PowerPoint & Worship → Don Carlson

Don serves as Assistant to the Bishop in the TX-LA Gulf Coast Synod. He has a lot of practical parish experience using PPT in liturgy and preaching.
